

MARK S. SCHAEFER, Ph.D.

Psychological Consulting Services, LLC
10 Federal Street, Suite 406
Salem, MA 01970

Tel (978) 740-3100

Fax (978) 740-5656

e-mail: mschaefer@pcsforensic.com

www.pcsforensic.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

CURRENT FORENSIC AND CLINICAL PRACTICE

Psychological Consulting Services, Salem, MA – Partner in forensic practice providing psychological assessments in a wide variety of forensic areas including: Qualified Examiner to evaluate Sexually Dangerous Persons; pre-employment screening of police officers and firefighters; consultations to public safety departments, schools, and corporations providing risk assessments and fitness-for-duty evaluations; appointment as Guardian ad litem on issues of child custody, parental fitness and visitation, Also provide consultation and evaluation on matters including aid-in-sentencing, competency and criminal responsibility, and classification with the Sex Offender Registry Board. (1999 to present)

PRIOR FORENSIC AND CLINICAL PRACTICE

Private Practice, Quincy, MA & Newton MA - Specialities included individual treatment of children, adolescents and adults, marital and family therapy and psychological testing, diagnostic and forensic evaluations (1978 - 2006)

Malden, Lynn and Gloucester District Adult Court Clinics – Court psychologist provided same-day and extensive outpatient evaluations in criminal and civil matters, including competency to stand trial, criminal responsibility, aid-in-sentencing and civil commitment evaluations. (1987 - 2006)

Chief Psychologist, Coastal Community Counseling Ctr., Braintree, MA. Primary administrative responsibility was to direct the APA-approved pre-doctoral internship program in clinical psychology. Clinical duties included providing family and marital therapy, individual therapy with children, adolescents and adults, psychological testing, and supervision of staff and students. Additional duties included development of an Employee Assistance Program, forensic evaluations, pre-employment screening of police officers, consultant to the Sexual Abuse Unit. (1978 – 1987)

Clinical Psychologist, Dept. of Child Psychiatry, Tufts New England Medical Center Hospital, Boston, MA - Responsibilities included school consultation and direct service within Boston Public Schools, supervision of psychology interns and psychiatric residents. Also provided individual, group and family therapy at the medical center and clinic in South Boston. (1976 – 1979)

Psychology Intern, Convalescent Hospital for Children, Rochester, N.Y. (APA-Approved program.) - Duties included provision of full range of diagnostic and treatment services to the child inpatient and outpatient populations as well as school consultation. (1974 – 1975)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

1977-1979 Instructor in Psychiatry, Tufts Medical School

1979-1980 Lecturer in Psychology, Boston College

1985-1986 Instructor in Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School

EDUCATION

1972 A.B. Columbia University, New York, NY

1976 Ph.D. Clinical Psychology, Washington University, St. Louis, MO.

WORKSHOP PRESENTATIONS

A systems analysis of a consultation to an inner-city school utilizing both direct and indirect service. American Association of Psychiatric Services to Children, Atlanta, GA. 1978

Intern selection and catchment area demographics. American Psychological Association, Los Angeles, California. 1981

Cooperation versus competition in two CMHC-based Employee Assistance Programs. National Council of Community Mental Health Centers, Las Vegas, Nev. 1986.

LICENSURE, CERTIFICATIONS, MEMBERSHIPS

Licensed Psychologist (#1977), Commonwealth of Massachusetts, effective 1977
Qualified Examiner (Sexually Dangerous Persons), Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Guardian ad Litem, Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Member, American Psychological Association

Member, Massachusetts Psychological Association

Member, Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers

Designated Forensic Psychologist, Commonwealth of Massachusetts (inactive)

Forensic Mental Health Supervisor, Commonwealth of Massachusetts (inactive)